

Course Description

We shall start by exploring the concept of symmetry. We discuss how to study symmetry by mathematics, and in particular by using algebra. After that, we shall move on to discuss some interesting questions that involve a bit of symmetry, combinatorics, physics, inequalities, complex numbers, and number theory.

Your best teacher shall be your curiosity. We seek the truth in science.